

Schedule is subject to change due to the availability of presenters

Time (BST)	Welcome - Day 1
10:00	MEREDITH JONES, Director, Institute of Communities and Societies Brunel University London Welcome REBECCA LINGWOOD, Provost, Brunel University London Official Opening
10:15	Session 1 - Girls and Girlhood MISHRA PRABODH AND SAYAN CHAKRABORTY Kimpact: The impact of Kim Kardashian on Indian girls EUNICE GAERLAN-PRICE Girlhood in the Mirror: Kardashians, celebrity capital and the teenage girl gaze
11:15	Session 2 - Narrative and Authorship DONNA BRIEN The Kardashians and contemporary publishing: self-representation, ghost writing and authentic authorship CAT DORMAN AND STEFF BOULTON 'I Remember Almost Every Pet We've Had': Pets as Narrative Device in Keeping Up with the Kardashians
12:15	Break
15:00	Session 3 - Posthuman and Transhumanism MAUREEN LEHTO BREWSTER Producing Posthuman Celebrity: Fashion, Architecture, and the Body in Keeping Up with the Kardashians SARAH MARILYN BARRICK Kim Kardashian as a Transhumanist Icon
16:00	Session 4 - Trans Celebrity Privilege MELVIN WILLIAMS Social Media's Commoditized Transgender Ambassador: Caitlyn Jenner, Twitter, and Transgender Digital activism CAVYN MITCHELL Transgender identity and privilege: coming out in the public eye and the role of celebrity
17:00	Break
17:20	Session 5 Bodies, Gender, Fashion KATHERINE APPLEFORD SKIMS: Unpacking the contradictions in Kim's body-positive shapewear 'solutions' MANON RENAULT Fashion's, or the weak point of the Kardashian Mity

Schedule is subject to change due to the availability of presenters

Time (BST)
10:20

Welcome - Day 2

Schedule is subject to change due to the availability of presenters

Time (BST)	Welcome - Day 3
11:50	MEREDITH JONES
12:00	Session 13 - Deviant Women